The Holiday Potluck was attended by about 35 folks who brought good food, and lots of fellowship. The print exchange went off without too much bickering and fighting over the wonderful images folks brought. I know I got a signature image from a photographer whose work I had been lusting after for years.

The mini- and maxi-shows that swept the 4Cs projection competition (Paula's "Changes", Mike's "Flowers" and Pat's "Tall Birds") were presented for the night's entertainment.

It was a fine evening: the only downer was the fact that Rick was not there to supply us with his wonderful tossed green salad. He promises that he is recovering nicely and will see us in January.
