END OF THE YEAR POTLUCK

There were good eats, door prizes, visitors, and good friends at the Monday night end of the year Potluck. Roland printed us a nice program. Joanne gave us a merciful invocation, we ate good food, and then Ben Dailey started the program off with his Mini-show "Patterns and/or Abstracts. Awards were awarded (see below). We elected our new officers (well most of them are from last year) by acclamation:

Pres – Rick, Vice Pres – Marilyn, Sec. – Sue, Treas. – Jerry.

And Roland closed the program with HIS slide show -- "THE END".

Other News:

THE MULTNOMAH COUNTY FAIR is all over and we had lots of winners: Jim, Roland, Bob And David walked home with CASH. This is getting pretty boring, but Roland won the theme award AGAIN. :) (Congrats!). PPS also won $25.00 for club entries.

The Cascade Chapter of PSA (Jim Baker again) will sponsor a SMALL PRINT COMPETITION. This will be held in the King City Town Hall on the third weekend of September. Acceptances will be due 10 days before the show opens, and you may enter four each of Color and Monochrome.

The NATIONAL PSA CONFERENCE will be held in Portland at the Marriott Hotel August 31 through September 6th. Keep the dates open – lots of stuff included in this, the 70th anniversary.

The Columbia Council of Camera Clubs (4Cs to you) will have its annual Convention in Tacoma in October, last weekend. Visit the website, save the date, send in your reservations!! www.Columbiacouncil.org.

The Oregon Blue book competition is on again this year. Remember Adele Regnier won it a few years ago!!! Let's have another PPS member do it again. Here's where you can get info/entry forms/etc. www.oregon.bluebook@state.or.us. Or phone 503-378-5199.

Hopefully, when the weather gets warmer (will it ever?), we will schedule a trip to NorthWest Trek, the Reptile House in Tigard, Wildlife Safari in Roseburg, Wolf Haven, Buffalo Ranch in Gaston, or places yet to be imagined. Any one like to "honcho" one of these? Haven't heard any YESSES yet.....
