

PORTLAND PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY
FIELDTRIPS

July 31 & August 1 --- Mt. Ranier
(P.M.)

Wildflowers at Paradise. The setting sun's reflections on Mt. Ranier. With guidance from Marie Mans, a photographer who's very familiar with the mountain, we'll hope to catch the wildflowers at their peak and the mountain in some great light. According to Marie, there are some excellent wildflower opportunities adjacent to the roads. For those interested in hiking, she'll offer suggestions about trails. Motel reservations will be made for those interested in a roof over their heads. Marie has camping ideas for anyone who wants the sky for a roof.

August 2 --- Northwest Trek

NW Trek's photo tram tour will give us an opportunity to get close-up views of bison, deer, elk, mountain goats, and bighorn sheep. Then, we'll have time to roam around the core area to see eagles, owls, bear, lynx, wolves, and more. There are only 6 spots reserved for Portland Photographic, so sign up early to snag one. Since we'll need to be at NW Trek by 7:30am, we'll plan to spend the night before at a motel in Eatonville.

Participants may take part in either or both of these activities. To reserve a spot on the NW Trek Photo Tour send a $25 deposit* to Marilyn Pitts, 3245 N.E. 81, Portland, OR 97213 (287-4774) by June 28. To sign up for Mt. Ranier, send a $10 deposit* to Marilyn by July 18.

September 8, 9, & 10 --- Olympic National Forest

Views of the thick forests and dense undergrowth of the Olympics will be our reward for making this trip. Sign up by sending a $10 deposit* to Roland Smith, 1281 S.E. Laura Dr., Gresham, Or 97080 by August 8.

September 26 & 27 --- Lost Lake
(P.M.)

Arriving late Friday afternoon, we'll have the opportunity to catch the sunset reflecting on Mt. Hood and a classic sunrise shot of Mt. Hood & Lost Lake with fall colors. To save a spot, send a $10 deposit* to Jeanette Heidtbrink, 5720 N.E. Jessup, Portland, OR 97218 by September 5.

* Deposits are non-refundable. According to PPS' fieldtrip policy, one dollar of each deposit goes to the PPS general fund and the remainder, minus any entrance fees, is returned to each participant on the day of the fieldtrip. If a person doesn't take part, the deposit is turned over to the PPS general fund.
