WELCOME TO THE NEW YEAR OF PORTLAND PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY FELLOWSHIP!!!

Member News

Jim Baker became a Fellow of the Photographic Society of America at the National meeting held here in Portland last week.!! He received one of only four awarded this year. The award is given for service to the Society and photographic excellence as demonstrated by awards and acceptances in the Society's exhibitions. Jim has belonged to the Society since 1976, he has served on committees such as the awards committee, the PhotoTravel Division, he was a columnist for the Journal for many years, and was on the Board of Directors for two terms. This award is the culmination of years of good works for the organization and years of good photography for his soul. Congratulations JIM.!!!

Both Roland Smith and Jim Baker had acceptances in the exhibitions displayed at the meeting!!!
Hard to come by – Good shooting.

Paula Burgess wins First prize in The Architectural Photography competition for 2008!!! “--my print of the Hollywood Theatre - "Hollywood Angel"-- won first place in the Architectural Heritage Center photo competition. The contest was called "Angels in the Architecture" and photographers were asked to submit prints of architectural details around Portland. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place photos plus 7 honorable mentions were chosen from 150 images. What an honor for such a good Photograph. Congratulations!!

Pat Starr was one of three judges for the Oregon Salon of Photography at the Oregon State Fair.

Marilyn Pitts, Rick Charlton, Jim Baker, Jerry Kohler, Paula Burgess and Pat Starr have been spending the last month or so preparing a new flyer for the club and revamping the Yearbook so that it is easier to get information from. We hope you like what we did. They are not quite finished yet but should be available mid month.

Bob Baker has moved from NE Halsey to SE Holgate – see the roster for the new address.
